Rejoice

The Third Sunday of Advent has a nickname: "Gaudete Sunday." Gaudete is first word of the Entrance Antiphon for this day in Latin, and it means "Rejoice!" The full text of the antiphon is "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed the Lord is near." (Phil. 4:4-5) Joy is a special theme for this day. There are many reasons to rejoice in the Lord, especially in our parish.

We rejoice that we have a beautiful Pastoral Center and Knight Hall. Indeed, all of the rooms have been in constant use since the building was opened. It is great to have school events, faith formation and youth events, Bible studies, lectio divina, and other spiritually enriching, community building activities. Along with these are meetings for various ministries, parish staff, and administration. We are putting our beautiful building to good use!

Another special reason for joy is actually a large group of reasons. There are a lot of celebratory events connected with this season: the Noel Night of December 10th; the celebrations for Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12th; the school Christmas pageants and play; the celebrations of las Posadas in our Hispanic community; and other celebrations hosted by parishioners and parish ministries.

Soon it will be Christmas, which gives us the greatest reason to rejoice. Let's continue to prepare our hearts for a greater presence of the Lord within us and among us. That Divine Presence makes it possible for us to follow the exhortation of St. Paul: "Rejoice in the Lord always!"

¡Alégrese!

¿El Tercer Domingo de Adviento tiene un apodo: "Domingo de Gaudete". Gaudete es la primera palabra de la Antífona de Entrada de este día en latín, y significa "¡Alégrese!" El texto completo de la antífona es "Siempre regocíjense en el Señor; de nuevo digo, regocíjense. Ciertamente, el Señor está cerca". (Filipenses 4:4-5) El gozo es un tema especial para este día. Hay muchas razones para regocijarse en el Señor, especialmente en nuestra parroquia.

Nos regocijamos de tener un hermoso Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall. De hecho, todos los salones han estado en constante uso desde que se inauguró el edificio. Es fantástico tener eventos escolares, formación en la fe y eventos juveniles, estudios bíblicos, lectio divina y otras actividades de desarrollo comunitario espiritualmente enriquecedor. Junto con estos eventos también hemos tenido reuniones de varios ministerios, del personal de la parroquia y administración. ¡Le estamos dando un buen uso a nuestro hermoso edificio!

Otra razón especial por nuestra alegría es en realidad un grupo grande de razones. Hay muchos eventos de celebración relacionados con esta temporada: el concierto Navideño el 10 de diciembre; las celebraciones de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe el 12 de diciembre y obras de teatro Navideñas de la escuela; las celebraciones de las Posadas en nuestra comunidad hispana; y otras celebraciones organizadas por feligreses y ministerios parroquiales.

Pronto llegará la Navidad, la que nos da el mayor motivo para regocijarnos. Sigamos preparando nuestro corazón para una mayor presencia del Señor en nosotros y entre nosotros. Esa Presencia Divina hace posible que sigamos la exhortación de San Pablo: "¡Estad siempre alegres en el Señor!"

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

The Advent Season - Week 3

REV. JOSEPH SQUILLACIOTI, S.T.L.

Gaudete Sunday, the third Sunday in Advent gets its name from the traditional Latin entrance hymn whose first word is "Gaudete!" or Rejoice! This ancient hymn gives us the entire mood of the Mass: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Let your forbearance be known to all, for the Lord is near at hand; have no anxiety about anything, but in all things, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God. Lord, you have blessed your land; you have turned away the captivity of Jacob."

The color rose is used to signify the joy we have in rejoicing. Gaudete Sunday provides us with a break about midway through Advent – a season which otherwise is more penitential in character and conversion oriented. It signifies the Lord's coming.

O come thou Dayspring from on high..

Traditionally, we sing this verse directed to the Dayspring or Morning Star (Oriens) on December 21st, the shortest day of the year. As the Light of the World comes, the days get longer and the darkness is dispelled. In asking the Morning Star to dawn upon us, to scatter the darkness of sin and death and allow the Sun of Justice to shed his rays upon us, we are doing more than praying for a certain event to take place.

We are asking to be transformed by the coming of Christ (the Sun of Justice), that we ourselves may live as children of light.

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: come, shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

From a prophecy by Isaiah: the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shown. (Isaiah 9:1).

Not only does Isaiah talk about light in his prophecies, but also in the book of Wisdom.

Recall also that our reflection on the verse about wisdom describes the Messiah as the Wisdom of the Father.

The Advent mystery makes real what one reads in Wisdom 7:26, that Wisdom is a reflection of eternal light, the spotless mirror of the power of God, the image of his goodness. Light allows us to see and illuminate what is before us just as Jesus allows us to see God in the flesh.

Sap 7, 26; Mal 4, 2; Lc 1, 78-79

O-ri-ens, * splendor lu-cis æ-térnæ et sol iustí-ti-æ: ve-ni et il-lúmi-na sedéntes in té-ne-bris et umbra mor-tis. E u o u a e.

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: come, shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

Pastoral Center Blessing & Open House

We were thrilled to open the doors to the new Pastoral Center just before Thanksgiving. Bishop Vann led the Vigil Mass on Saturday, November 19 and blessed the new building immediately following. Parishoners enjoyed tours and refreshments all weekend. We hope everyone had a chance to see it all. We look forward to continue serving our entire community with our new blessings.

Pastoral Center Furnishings

In this season of giving, consider a gift of furnishings for our new Pastoral Center. Be a part of enhancing our ability to celebrate, serve and evangelize in this incredible space provided by the Grace of God through your generosity.
